Honorable Richard Bolling
Chairman, Subcommittee on Economic Statistics
Joint Economic Committee
Congress of the United States
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Bolling:

In the absence of Mr. Dulles from the city I have your letter to him of 28 September 1959 regarding the hearings in connection with the Subcommittee's Study of Comparisons of the United States and Soviet Economies. As Mr. Dulles had previously stated, he will be pleased to meet with your Subcommittee on Friday, 13 November, at two o'clock.

We should like very much to review the first collection of panelists' papers which you indicate will be available in printed form next week and also Part II to be released in mid-October.
